PREFACE.

THE edition of "Hymns of the Faith" which is now put before the churches is not an abridgment of the original edition, but an entirely new arrangement of hymns and tunes. It fitly retains, however, the same title with its predecessor, as like that it is based upon and follows the order of the Apostles' Creed. The number of hymns has been reduced to less than five hundred, the more popular tunes have been frequently repeated, and second tunes added in many cases where old hymns have been set to new tunes.

Of the 472 hymns, about 150 are set to tunes which are familiar in all churches, such as Olmutz, Laban, Italian Hymn, and Silver Street. Nearly fifty more are set to modern music which is quite generally known and can be sung in almost any congregation or prayer-meeting, such as "Abide with me" to Eventide, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty" to Nicæa, "Jerusalem the golden" to Ewing, and "Onward Christian soldiers" to St. Gertrude. Nearly half the tunes, therefore, are at once available in almost any church. The new tunes which are offered have been chosen for their melody, sweetness, plaintiveness, vivacity, force, or dignity, according to the character of the various hymns to which they are set. The following are a few examples of the character of the new music: Beatitude, 11, 66, 249; Marshall, 15, 74; Mirfield, 20; Coronæ, 26, 112; Humility, 8, 9, 327; St. Saviour, 44, 108, 109; Manger, 53; St. Denys, 87; Koenig, 123; Alleluia, 126; Dismission, 180, 187; Amerton, 192; Ellacombe, 195; Greenland, 199; Munus, 201, 322; Service, 209, 250; Waltham, 217, 316; St. Edith, 245, 376; Invitation, 264; Vox Dilecti, 285; Lachrymæ, 266; Emmaus, 286, 421; Tristitia, 291; Eagley, 305, 306; St. Andrew of Crete, 311; Armes, 320; Castle Rising, 395; and nearly all of the tunes under "Evening" and "The Life Everlasting."

The utmost care has been taken to adapt the music to the sentiment and rhythm of the hymns. Some hymns which have heretofore been set to unsuitable tunes have been recovered by appropriate adaptations, and some have been given a new tune when the old has been retained, such as "Rock of Ages, cleft for me" to Rock of Ages, "There is a fountain filled with blood" to St. Agnes, "Stand up, stand up for Jesus" to Greenland, "Nearer my God to Thee" to Kedron, "Just as I am, without one plea" to Penitence, "O holy Saviour, Friend unseen" to Pascal, "Majestic sweetness sits enthroned" to St. Leonard, and "Soldiers of Christ, arise" to Amerton. The best tunes have been repeated as frequently as practicable. Many of the tunes, without being trivial or secular, are admirably adapted to meetings of evangelistic preaching and religious revival. There are also under some of the topics hymns and tunes for children, besides the choral and animated music which children love and in which the book abounds.

The Amen is given at the end of every hymn, and the musical notes for singing it with every tune. It should become an invariable practice to use the Amen, as the singing thus becomes more significant as worship, and does not end abruptly.

In order to give the proper movement the number of quarter notes to be sung in a minute is indicated at the beginning of each tune. This is of great service to organists and leaders, as a given mark, 65, 90, 112, shows at a glance the time which should be taken, whether slow or fast or moderate. The effectiveness of many tunes, especially those which require a quick movement, is lost if the rate is taken slowly, and stately, solid, choral tunes may be spoiled by too rapid singing.

In making a popular edition of "Hymns of the Faith," the compilers have not allowed themselves to lower the standard of hymnology or of church music which they at the first adopted. The present book is not designed to be inclusive of such hymns and tunes as have simply a transient popularity. Neither is it designed to compete with books which have a special object, like well-known collections of Revival Melodies, or Sunday-school Hymnals, or the books of particular societies, like the Society of Christian Endeavor. Any or all of these may be used to supplement the working hymn-book of the church, but they cannot take the place of it. That book, as the compilers believe, has a distinct office to fulfill, which cannot be met if it is constructed with a view to satisfy every special use and to cater to every taste. The hymn-book of the church, it is assumed, should represent the church in its entire life, its faith, its experience, its devotion, and its work, but it should represent it consistently. There seems to be no reason why the hymns or the music of the church should be on a lower grade or have less educating and stimulating power than the sermon, or the instructions of the Sunday-school, or the devotions of the prayer-meeting. And it is believed that the church has in its possession hymns and tunes which are full of inspiration and freedom, of tenderness and persuasion, of incitement and awakening; and that there is no occasion to resort to the more doubtful secular music or to imitations of it.

It has been the aim of the compilers to prepare a book which may be used in all departments of the life and activity of the church, and which may minister to its spiritual growth and enlargement.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

FOR

RESPONSIVE READING

TOGETHER WITH

THE COMMANDMENTS, THE LITANY, AND THE APOSTLES' CREED.

The arrangement of the Psalms for reading corresponds with the arrangement for Chanting in the original edition of Hymns of the Faith. The music of the Gloria for use at the close of each selection is appended to the first selection.

Selection 1

Psalm I

BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord ; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season ; his leaf also shall not wither ; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so : but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous : but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm II

7 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing ?

8 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his Anointed, saying,

9 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

10 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh : the Lord shall have them in derision.

11 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

12 Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion.

13 I will declare the decree : the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son ; this day have I begotten thee.

14 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

15 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron ; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

16 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

17 Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

18 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

Psalm IV

19 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

20 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing?

21 But know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the Lord will hear when I call unto him.

22 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.

23 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord.

24 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

25 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

26 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety.

Psalm V

GIVE ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the voice of my cry,

my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the Lord will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

Psalm VIII

13 O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

14 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength

because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

15 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained ;

16 What is man, that thou art mindful of him ? and the son of man, that thou visitest him ?

17 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

18 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands ; thou hast put all things under his feet :

19 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field ;

20 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

21 O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth !

Psalm XV

22 Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle ? who shall dwell in thy holy hill ?

23 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

24 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

25 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned ; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord.

26 He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

27 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Selection 3

Psalm XVI

PRESERVE me, O God : for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, Thou art my Lord : my goodness extendeth not to thee ;

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god : their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup : thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places ; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel : my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

8 I have set the Lord always before me : because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth : my flesh also shall rest in hope.

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell ; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life : in thy presence is fulness of joy ; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Psalm XVII

12 Hear the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

13 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence ; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

14 Thou hast proved mine heart ; thou

Selection 4

Psalm XVIII: 1-24

hast visited me in the night ; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing : I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

15 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

16 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

17 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God : incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

18 Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

19 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings, 20 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

21 They are inclosed in their own fat : with their mouth they speak proudly.

22 They have now compassed us in our steps : they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth ;

23 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

24 Arise, O Lord, disappoint him, cast him down : deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword :

25 From men which are thy hand, O Lord, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure : they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

26 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness : I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

I WILL love thee, O Lord, my strength.
2 The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer ; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust ; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised : so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about : the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God : he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled ; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured : coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down : and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub and did fly : yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place ; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice ; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O Lord, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me : for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity : but the Lord was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place : he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness ; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Selection 5

Psalm XVIII: 25-50

WITH the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful ; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright ;

2 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure ; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

3 For thou wilt save the afflicted people ; but wilt bring down high looks.

4 For thou wilt light my candle : the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.

5 For by thee I have run through a troop ; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

6 As for God, his way is perfect : the word of the Lord is tried : he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

7 For who is God save the Lord ? or who is a rock save our God ?

8 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

9 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

10 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

11 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation : and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

12 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

13 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them : neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

14 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise : they are fallen under my feet.

15 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle : thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

16 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies ; that I might destroy them that hate me.

17 They cried, but there was none to save them : even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

18 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind : I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

19 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people: and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

20 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

21 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

22 The Lord liveth; and blessed be my Rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

23 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

24 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

25 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

26 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm XIX

THE heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Psalm XX

20 Now know I that the Lord saveth his anointed ; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

21 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses : but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

Psalm XXIII

THE Lord is my shepherd ; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures : he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul : he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for thou art with me ; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies : thou anointest my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life : and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm XXIV

7 The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof ; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

9 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord ? or who shall stand in his holy place ?

10 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart ; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

11 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

12 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob.

13 Lift up your heads, O ye gates ; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors ; and the King of glory shall come in.

14 Who is this King of glory ? the Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

15 Lift up your heads, O ye gates ; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors ; and the King of glory shall come in.

16 Who is this King of glory ? the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Psalm XXV: 1-9

17 Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

18 O my God, I trust in thee : let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.

19 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed : let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

20 Shew me thy ways, O Lord ; teach me thy paths.

21 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me : for thou art the God of my salvation ; on thee do I wait all the day.

22 Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses ; for they have been ever of old.

ALL the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

2 For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity ; for it is great.

3 What man is he that feareth the Lord ? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

4 His soul shall dwell at ease ; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

5 The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him ; and he will shew them his covenant.

6 Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord ; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

7 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me ; for I am desolate and afflicted.

8 The troubles of my heart are enlarged : O bring thou me out of my distresses.

9 Look upon mine affliction and my pain ; and forgive all my sins.

10 Consider mine enemies ; for they are many ; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

11 O keep my soul, and deliver me : let me not be ashamed ; for I put my trust in thee.

12 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me ; for I wait on thee.

13 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

Psalm XXVII

14 The Lord is my light and my salvation ; whom shall I fear ? the Lord is the strength of my life ; of whom shall I be afraid ?

15 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

16 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear : though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

17 One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after ; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

18 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion : in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me ; he shall set me up upon a rock.

19 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me : therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy ; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

20 Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice : have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

21 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face ; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

22 Hide not thy face far from me ; put not thy servant away in anger : thou hast been my help ; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

8 The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness ; the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the for-

Psalm XXX

12 I will extol thee, O Lord ; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

13 O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

14 O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave : thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

15 Sing unto the Lord, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

16 For his anger endureth but a moment ; in his favour is life : weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

17 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

18 Lord, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong : thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

19 I cried to thee, O Lord ; and unto the Lord I made supplication.

20 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit ? Shall the dust praise thee ? shall it declare thy truth ?

21 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me : Lord, be thou my helper.

22 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing : thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness ;

Psalm XXXI

IN thee, O Lord, do I put my trust ;
let me never be ashamed : deliver me
in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear to me ; deliver me speedily : be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress ; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me : for thou art my strength.

5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit :
thou has redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities : but I trust in the Lord.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy : for thou hast considered my trouble ; thou hast known my soul in adversities ;

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy : thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble : mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing : my strength fail-eth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance :
they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind : I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the slander of many : fear was on every side : while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O Lord : I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thy hand : deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant : save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord ; for I have called upon thee : let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence ; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee ; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men !

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man :
thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the Lord : for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes : nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints :
for the Lord preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,

Psalm XXXII

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me : my moisture is turned into the drought of summer.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord ; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found : surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my hiding place ; thou shalt preserve me from trouble ; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go : I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding : whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked : but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew : surely they are disquieted in vain : he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for ? my hope is in thee.

21 O send out thy light and thy truth : let them lead me ; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

22 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy : yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

23 Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted within me ? hope in God : for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm XLV

MY heart is inditing a good matter :
I speak of the things which I have made touching the King : my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men : grace is poured into thy lips : therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness ; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies ; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever : the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness : therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women : upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear ; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house ;

11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty : for he is thy Lord ; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift ; even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.

13 The King's daughter is all glorious within : her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework ; the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought : they shall enter into the king's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations : therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

Psalm XLVI

18 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

19 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea ;

20 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

21 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

22 God is in the midst of her ; she shall not be moved : God shall help her,
and that right early.

23 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved : he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

24 The Lord of hosts is with us ; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

25 Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

26 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth ; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder ; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

27 Be still, and know that I am God :
I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

28 The Lord of hosts is with us ; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

Psalm XLVIII

GREAT is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled ; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God : God will establish it for ever.

9 We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth : thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her : tell the towers thereof.

13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces ; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever : he will be our guide even unto death.

Psalm L

15 The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

16 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God had shined.

17 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence : a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

18 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

19 Gather my saints together unto me ; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

20 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness : for God is judge himself.

21 Hear, O my people, and I will speak ; O Israel, and I will testify against thee : I am God, even thy God.

22 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

23 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

24 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

25 I know all the fowls of the mountains : and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

26 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee : for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

27 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats ?

28 Offer unto God thanksgiving ; and pay thy vows unto the most High :

29 And call upon me in the day of trouble : I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

30 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth ?

31 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

32 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

33 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

34 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother ; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

35 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence ; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself : but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

36 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

37 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me : and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm LI

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness : according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions : and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight : that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity ; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts : and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness ; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God ; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence ; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation ; and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways ; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation : and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice ; else would I give it : thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit : a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion : build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering : then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Psalm LVII

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me : for my soul trusteth in thee : yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God Most High ; unto God that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions : and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens ; let thy glory be above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps ; my soul is bowed down : they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves.

7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed : I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake up, my glory ; awake, psalter and harp : I myself will awake early.

9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people : I will sing unto thee among the nations.

10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens : let thy glory be above all the earth.

Psalm LXII

12 Truly my soul waiteth upon God : from him cometh my salvation.

13 He only is my rock and my salvation ; he is my defence ; I shall not be greatly moved.

14 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man ? ye shall be slain all of you : as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

15 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency : they delight in lies : they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

16 My soul, wait thou only upon God ; for my expectation is from him.

17 He only is my rock and my salvation : he is my defence ; I shall not be moved.

18 In God is my salvation and my glory : the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

19 Trust in him at all times ; ye people, pour out your heart before him : God is a refuge for us.

20 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie : to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

21 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery : if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

22 God hath spoken once ; twice have I heard this ; that power belongeth unto God.

23 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy : for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Psalm LXIII

O GOD, thou art my God ; early will I seek thee : my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is ;

2 To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee while I live : I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness ; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips :

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee : thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall fall by the sword ; they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God ; every one that sweareth by him shall glory : but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Psalm LXV

12 Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion : and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

13 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

14 Iniquities prevail against me : as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

15 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts :

we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

16 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation ; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea :

17 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains ; being girded with power :

18 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

19 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens : thou makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

20 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it : thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water : thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

21 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly : thou settlest the furrows thereof : thou makest it soft with showers : thou blessest the springing thereof.

22 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness ; and thy paths drop fatness.

23 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness : and the little hills rejoice on every side.

24 The pastures are clothed with flocks ; the valleys also are covered over with corn ; they shout for joy, they also sing.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm LXVI

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name : make his praise glorious.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name.

5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidest affliction upon our loins.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats.

16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

19 But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

Psalm LXVII

21 God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Selah.

22 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

23 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

24 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

25 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

26 Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

27 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name Jah, and rejoice before him.

21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

IN thee, O Lord, do I put my trust ; let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape : incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort : thou hast given commandment to save me ; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O Lord God : thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb : thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels : my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wonder unto many ; but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age ; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me ; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together,

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him : persecute and take him ; for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not far from me : O my God, make haste for my help.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul ; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day ; for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God : I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth : and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 Now also, when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not ; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things : O God, who is like unto thee ?

20 Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God : unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee ; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass : as showers that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish ; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him ; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents : the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him : all nations shall serve him.

Psalm LXXIII

TRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone ; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death : but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men : neither are they plagued like other men.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain ; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness : they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression : they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither : and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How doth God know ? and is there knowledge in the Most High ?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world ; they increase in riches.

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus ; behold I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me ;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God ; then understood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places ; thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment ! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh ; so O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant : I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee : thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee ? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth : but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish : thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God : I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night : I commune with mine own heart : and my spirit made diligent search.

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever ? doth his promise fail for evermore ?

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious ? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies ?

10 And I said, This is my infirmity : but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

11 I will remember the works of the Lord : surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary : who is so great a God as our God ?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders : thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee ; they were afraid : the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds poured out water : the skies sent out a sound : thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven : the lightnings lightened the world : the earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm LXXX

GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that ledest Joseph like a flock ; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

3 Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.

4 O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people ?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears ; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours : and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt : thou hast cast out the heathen and planted it.

9 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her ?

13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts : look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine ;

15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down : they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

18 So will not we go back from thee : quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts, cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm LXXXIV

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts !

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord : my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house : they will be still praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee ; in whose heart are the ways of them.

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well ; the rain also filleth the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer : give ear, O God of Jacob.

9 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the Lord God is a sun and shield : the Lord will give grace and glory : no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Psalm LXXXV

13 Lord, thou hast been favourable unto thy land : thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

14 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin.

15 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath : thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

16 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

17 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever ? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations ?

18 Wilt thou not revive us again : that thy people may rejoice in thee ?

19 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

20 I will hear what God the Lord will speak : for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints : but let them not turn again to folly.

21 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him ; that glory may dwell in our land.

22 Mercy and truth are met together ; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

23 Truth shall spring out of the earth ; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

24 Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good ; and our land shall yield her increase.

25 Righteousness shall go before him ; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

Psalm LXXXVI

BOW down thine ear, O Lord, hear me : for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul ; for I am holy : O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord : for I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant : for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive ; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer ; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee : for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord ; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord ; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things : thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord ; I will walk in thy truth : unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart : and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me : and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul ; and have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me ; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

17 Shew me a token for good ; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed : because thou, Lord, has holpen me, and comforted me.

Psalm LXXXVII

18 His foundation is in the holy mountains.

19 The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

20 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God.

21 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me : behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia ; this man was born there.

22 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her : and the highest himself shall establish her.

23 The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there.

24 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there : all my springs are in thee.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations.

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord : thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord ? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord ?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

8 O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee ? or to thy faithfulness round about thee ?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea : when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain : thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine : as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south thou hast created them : Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm : strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne : mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound : they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day : and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their

Psalm XC

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction ; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood ; they are as a sleep ; in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up ; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath : we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten ; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow ; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger ? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O Lord, how long ? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy ; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us : and establish thou the work of our hands upon us ; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment : the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At thy rebuke they fled ; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 They go up by the mountains ; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field ; the wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from his chambers : the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man : that he may bring forth food out of the earth ;

15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the Lord are full of sap ; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted ;

17 Where the birds make their nests : as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats ; and the rocks for the conies.

19 He appointed the moon for seasons : the sun knoweth his going down.

20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night : wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening.

24 O Lord, how manifold are thy works ! in wisdom hast thou made them all : the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships : there is that

27 These all wait upon thee, that thou mayst give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them, they gather : thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled : thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created : and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the Lord shall endure for ever : the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth : he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live : I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet : I will be glad in the Lord.

35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm CVII: 1-22

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is good : for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way ; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men !

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron ;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High :

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour ; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men !

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat ; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men !

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

Psalm CVII: 23-43

THEY that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters ;

2 These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

3 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

4 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths : their soul is melted because of trouble.

5 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

6 Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

7 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

8 Then are they glad because they be quiet ; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

9 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men !

10 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

11 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the water-springs into dry ground ;

12 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

13 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into water-springs.

14 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation ;

15 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

16 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly ; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

17 Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

18 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

19 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

20 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice : and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

21 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning : thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies ; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way : therefore shall he lift up the head.

Psalm CXI

8 Praise ye the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

9 The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

10 His work is honourable and glorious : and his righteousness endureth for ever.

11 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered : the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

12 He hath given meat unto them that fear him : he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

13 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

14 The works of his hands are verity and judgment ; all his commandments are sure.

15 They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

16 He sent redemption unto his people : he hath commanded his covenant for ever : holy and reverend is his name.

17 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do his commandments : his praise endureth for ever.

Psalm CXII

18 Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

19 His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

20 Wealth and riches shall be in his house : and his righteousness endureth for ever.

21 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness : he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

22 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth : he will guide his affairs with discretion.

23 Surely he shall not be moved for ever : the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

24 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings : his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

25 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

26 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor ; his righteousness endureth for ever ; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

27 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved ; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away : the desire of the wicked shall perish.

2 Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth and for evermore.

3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's name is to be praised.

4 The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high.

6 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill.

8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

9 He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm CXV

10 Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

11 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God?

12 But our God is in the heavens; he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

13 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

14 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not.

15 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not.

16 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

17 They that make them are like unto

18 O Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

19 O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

20 Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

21 The Lord hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous ;
yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple : I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul ;
for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord in the 10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me ; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee ; but the night shineth as the day : the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins : thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee ; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made : marvellous are thy works ; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect ; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm CXLII

I CRIED unto the Lord with my voice: with my voice unto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O Lord: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

Psalm CXLIV

8 Blessed be the Lord my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight;

9 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

10 Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

11 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

12 Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

13 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

14 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

15 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

16 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

17 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

18 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood :

19 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth ; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace :

20 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store ; that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets :

21 That our oxen may be strong to labour ; that there be no breaking in, nor going out ; that there be no complaining in our streets.

22 Happy is that people, that is in such a case : yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm CXLV

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king : and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee ; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised ; and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts : and I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion ; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

9 The Lord is good to all : and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord ; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power ;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee : and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him : he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The Lord preserveth all them that love him : but all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord : and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm CXLVI

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise the Lord, O my soul.

2 While I live will I praise the Lord : I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God :

6 Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is : which keepeth truth for ever :

7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed : which giveth food to the hungry. The Lord looseth the prisoners :

8 The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind : the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down : the Lord loveth the righteous :

9 The Lord preserveth the strangers ; he relieveth the fatherless and widow : but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm CXLVII

11 Praise ye the Lord : for it is good to sing praises unto our God ; for it is pleasant ; and praise is comely.

12 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem : he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

13 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

14 He telleth the number of the stars ; he calleth them all by their names.

15 Great is our Lord, and of great power : his understanding is infinite.

16 The Lord lifteth up the meek : he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

17 Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving ; sing praise upon the harp unto our God :

18 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

19 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

20 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse : he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

21 The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

22 Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem ; praise thy God, O Zion.

23 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates ; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

24 He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

25 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth : his word runneth very swiftly.

26 He giveth snow like wool : he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

27 He casteth forth his ice like morsels : who can stand before his cold ?

28 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them : he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

29 The Lord sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

30 He hath not dealt so with any nation : and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm CXLVIII

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens : praise him in the heights.

2 Praise ye him, all his angels : praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise ye him, sun and moon : praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of the Lord : for he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath also stablished them for ever and ever : he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

7 Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps :

8 Fire, and hail ; snow, and vapours ; stormy wind fulfilling his word :

9 Mountains, and all hills ; fruitful trees, and all cedars :

10 Beasts, and all cattle ; creeping things, and flying fowl :

11 Kings of the earth, and all people ; princes, and all judges of the earth :

12 Both young men, and maidens ; old men, and children :

13 Let them praise the name of the Lord : for his name alone is excellent ; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

14 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints ; even of the children of Israel ; a people near unto him. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm CXLIX

15 Praise ye the Lord. Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

16 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him : let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

17 Let them praise his name in the dance : let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

18 For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people : he will beautify the meek with salvation.

19 Let the saints be joyful in glory : let them sing aloud upon their beds.

20 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two edged sword in their hand ;

21 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people ;

22 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron ;

23 To execute upon them the judgment written : this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm CL

24 Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary : praise him in the firmament of his power.

25 Praise him for his mighty acts : praise him according to his excellent greatness.

26 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet : praise him with the psaltery and harp.

27 Praise him with the timbrel and dance : praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

28 Praise him upon the loud cymbals : praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

29 Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE COMMANDMENTS

Selection 57

MINISTER. God spake all these words, saying : I am the Lord thy God. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

PEOPLE. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in the heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth : thou shalt not bow down thyself to them nor serve them, for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me ; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain ; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work : but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God : in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates ; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day ; wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not kill.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind : This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it : Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

MINISTER. O God the Father of Heaven,

PEOPLE. Have mercy upon us.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world,

Have mercy upon us.

O God the Holy Ghost, our Comforter and Guide,

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sin of the world,

Have mercy upon us, and grant us thy peace.

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our fathers ; neither take thou vengeance of our sins ; spare us, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us forever ;

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and mischief ; from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil, from thy wrath, and from everlasting death,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart ; from pride, vain glory, and hypocrisy ; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitableness,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all unhallowed and sinful affections, from all defilements of mind and body, from unbelief and contempt of thy word and commandments,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From dying suddenly and unprepared ; from war, pestilence, and famine ; from hardness of heart, despair of thy mercy, and grieving of thy Holy Spirit,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of thy holy incarnation, by thy sacred birth and baptism, by thy fasting and temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine agony and bloody sweat, by thy cross and passion, by thy precious death and burial, by thy glorious resurrection and ascension, and by the coming of the Holy Ghost the Comforter,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our affliction, in all time of our prosperity, in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God, and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy church universal in the right way :

We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord.

That it may please thee to keep in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousness and in holiness of life, thy servants the President of the United States, the Governor of this Commonwealth, [the chief magistrate of this city,] and all others in authority over us ; endue them plentifully with thy grace and heavenly gifts, that they may rightly administer justice, wisely govern and faithfully protect thy people whom thou hast committed to their care ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve in purity of doctrine, in soundness of word, and in holiness of life, all pastors and ministers of thy church ; to send forth faithful laborers into thy harvest ; to encourage thy missionaries in our own land and among all nations ; and to grant the increase of thy word and the fruit of thy Spirit unto all that hear ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to comfort the sick and afflicted, especially those known to ourselves whom we name in our hearts before thee ; to succor all who are in danger ; to bless young children ; to show thy pity upon all prisoners and captives ; to defend and provide for fatherless children and widows, and all that are desolate and oppressed ; to keep in peace and safety the stranger in a strange land, and all who are far from home, that they may never want the comforting sense of thy presence ; and to have mercy upon all sorts and conditions of men ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and to turn their hearts ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so as in due time we may enjoy them ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance, to forgive all our sins as we from our hearts forgive all who trespass against us, and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to thy holy word ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

We poor sinners beseech thee to hear us, gracious Lord our God, and to keep us in everlasting communion with all thy faithful children who have entered into the joy of their Lord, especially with those who are dear to our souls, and with the whole church triumphant ; that we may all at last rest together in thy presence, from our labors.

Glory be to him who is the resurrection and the life, in the church which waiteth for him and in that which surroundeth him for ever and ever. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED.

Behold the Saviour's face,

Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as ye go
Some joyful anthem sing.
Take what He gives and praise Him still,

Help us to praise: Fa-ther! all glo-ri-ous, O'er all vic - to - ri-ous,

Come, and reign o - ver us, An - cient of Days!

Gird on Thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and Thy people bless,

In this glad hour:
Thou, Who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,

May we in glory see,

Love and adore. Amen.

Turn from the path of life aside. Amen.

1 Je - sus, where'er Thy peo - ple meet, There they behold Thy mer - cy - seat;

Musical score for the second system of 'Humility'. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Where'er they seek Thee, Thou art found, And ev'ry place is hallowed ground.

2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee where they come,
*And going, take Thee to their home.

4 Here may we prove the power of pray'r
To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

3 Dear Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving name.

5 Lord, we are few, but Thou art near:
Nor short Thine arm, nor deaf Thine ear;
Oh, rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts Thine own.

Amen.

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat:
*Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend:
Though sundered far, by faith they meet,
Around one common mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads:
A place than all besides more sweet:
It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed;
Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

5 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And time and sense seem all no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat. Amen.

2 My soul! ask what thou wilt;
Thou canst not be too bold;
Since His own blood for thee He spilt,

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Speak to my heart, and let it feel The kin-dling of Thy love.

2 With Thee conversing, I forget
All time, and toil, and care ;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If Thou, my God, art here.

4 Thou callest me to seek Thy face ;
'Tis all I wish to seek ;
To attend the whispers of Thy grace,
And hear Thee inly speak.

And make my heart rejoice ;
My bounding heart shall own Thy sway,
And echo to Thy voice.

Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

2 Though like a wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

3 There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

4 Then, with my waking thoughts,
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

5 Or if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee! Amen.

1 Thy mighty work-ing, mighty God, Wakes all my pow'rs; I look a-broad,

And can no lon - ger rest; I, too, must sing when all things sing,

And from my heart the prais-es ring, The Highest lov-eth best.

2 If Thou, in Thy great love to us,
Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus
O'er this poor earth of ours;
What nobler glories shall be given
Hereafter in Thy shining heaven,
Set round with golden towers!

3 What thrilling joy, when on our sight
Christ's garden beams in cloudless light
And rings with God's high praise;
Where all the thousand seraphim
In one accordant voice and hymn
Their Alleluia raise!

4 Oh, were I there! oh, that I now
Before Thy throne, my God, could bow,
And bear my heavenly palm!
Then, like the angels, would I raise
My voice, and sing Thine endless praise
In many a sweet-toned psalm. Amen.

From world to world the joy shall ring, "The Lord omnipotent is King!"

2 The Lord is King! Who then shall dare Resist His will, distrust His care?
Or murmur at His wise decrees,
Or doubt His royal promises?

4 Oh, when His wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, His love forsake,
Then may His children cease to sing,
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

3 The Lord is King! Child of the dust,
The Judge of all the earth is just;
Holy and true are all His ways,
Let every creature speak His praise.

All parts of His dominion lie;

Through earth and heaven one song shall ring,
"The Lord omnipotent is King!" Amen.

1 It came up-on the midnight clear, That glo-rious song of old,

From an - gels bend-ing near the earth, To touch their harps of gold:

"Peace on the earth, good-will to men From heaven's all-gra-cious King."

The world in soi - emn stillness lay To hear the an - gels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love-song which they bring:
Oh, hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing.

4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,—
Look now; for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

5 For lo, the days are hastening on
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold:
When Peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing. Amen.

everlasting Light; The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee to-night.

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;

1 From the eastern mountains Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom To His humble home;

Stirr'd by deep devotion, Hasting from afar, Ever journeying onward, Guided by a star.

Light of Life that shineth Ere the worlds began,
Draw Thou near, and lighten Every heart of man

2 There their Lord and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.
Light of Life, etc.

3 Thou who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.
Light of Life, etc.

ADVENT AND BIRTH

4 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them,
With Thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy guiding star.
Light of Life, etc.

5 Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath Thy starlit banner,
Jesus, follows Thee
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home,
Where nor sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.
Light of Life, etc. Amen.

1 As with gladness men of old, Did the guiding star behold; As with joy they hailed its [light,

Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore,
So may we with willing feet,
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

4 Holy Jesus! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

3 As they offered gifts most rare,
At that manger rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to Thee our heavenly King.

5 In the heavenly country bright,
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down;
There forever may we sing
Alleluias to our King. Amen.

Angels adore Him, in slumber reclining,

3 Say, shall we yield Him in costly devotion
Odors of Edom and offerings divine;
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine?

Vainly with gifts would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

1 I think, when I read that sweet story of old, When Jesus was here among men,
How He

called little children as lambs to His fold, I should like to have been with them then;

2 I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
That His arm had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,
"Let the little ones come unto Me."

3 Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in His love;
And if I now earnestly seek Him below,
I shall see Him and hear Him above:

4 In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
For all that are washed and forgiven,
And many dear children are gathering there,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

5 But thousands and thousands who wander and fall,
Never heard of that heavenly home;
I should like them to know there is room for them all,
And that Jesus has bid them to come.

6 I long for the joy of that glorious time,

When the dear little children of every clime
Shall crowd to His arms and be blest. Amen.

How the Cru - ci - fied, en - dur - ing Grief and wounds and dy - ing pain, Freely of His love was offered, Sin - less, was for sin - ners slain.

2 See! His hands and feet are fastened:	3 Thro' His heart the spear is piercing,
So He makes His people free!	Though His foes have seen Him die;
Not a wound whence blood is flowing	Blood and water thence are streaming
But a fount of grace shall be:	In a tide of mystery;
Yea, the very nails which nail Him	Water from our guilt to cleanse us,
Nail us, also, to the tree!	Blood to win us crowns on high.

4 Jesus, may those precious fountains
 Life to thirsting souls afford:
 Let them be our present healing,
 And at length our great reward:
 So a ransomed world shall ever
 Praise Thee, its redeeming Lord. Amen.

Now scornfully surrounded With thorns, Thine only crown; O sa-cred Head, what glo - ry, What bliss, till now was Thine! Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call Thee mine.

2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered,
Was all for sinner's gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain:
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'T is I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
Above all joys beside,
When in Thy body broken
I thus with safety hide:
My Lord of life, desiring
Thy glory now to see,
Beside Thy cross expiring,
I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

4 What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend?
For this, Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
Oh, make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee!

5 Be near when I am dying,
Oh, show Thy cross to me!
And for my succor flying,
Come, Lord, to set me free!
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From Jesus shall not move:
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely through Thy love. Amen.

The King of glo - ry is gone up Un - to His Father's side.

2 Thou art gone in before us, Lord,
 Thou hast prepared a place,
 That we may be where now Thou art,
 And look upon Thy face.

3 And ever on Thine earthly path
 A gleam of glory lies;
 A light still breaks behind the cloud
 That veils Thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our thoughts, lift up our songs,
 And let Thy grace be given:
 That while we linger yet below,
 Our hearts may be in heaven;

5 That where Thou art at God's right hand,
 Our hope, our love may be:
 Dwell in us now, that we may dwell
 For evermore in Thee. Amen.

 The watchers on the mountain
 Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
 Go meet Him as He cometh,
 With alleluias clear.

3 Our hope and expectation,
 O Jesus, now appear;
 Arise, Thou Sun so longed for,
 O'er this benighted sphere.
 With hearts and hands uplifted,
 We plead, O Lord, to see
 The day of earth's redemption,
 And ever be with Thee. Amen.

1 Lo, He comes, with clouds descending, Once for fa-vor'd sin - ners slain:

Thousand thousand saints at-tend-ing Swell the tri-umph of His train:

Al - le - lu - ia! God ap-pears on earth to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold Him,
 Robed in dreadful majesty:
 Those who set at nought and sold Him,
 Pierced, and nailed Him to the tree,
 Deeply wailing,
 Shall the true Messiah see.

4 Now redemption, long expected,
 See in solemn pomp appear;
 All His saints, by man rejected,
 Now shall meet Him in the air,
 Alleluia!
 See the day of God appear.

3 Every island, sea, and mountain,
 Heaven and earth, shall flee away:
 All who hate Him must, confounded,
 Hear the trump proclaim the day;
 Come to judgment,
 Come to judgment, come away.

5 Yea, Amen; let all adore Thee,
 High on Thine eternal throne;
 Saviour, take the power and glory;
 Claim the kingdom for Thine own.
 O come quickly,
 Alleluia! Come, Lord, come. Amen

J. B. DYKES

1 Come, quick-ly come, dread Judge of all; For aw-ful though Thine ad-vent be, All shad-ows from the truth will fall, And false-hood die in sight of Thee: O quick-ly come: for doubt and fear Like clouds dis-solve when Thou art near.

2 Come, quickly come, great King of all; O quickly come: for grief and pain Reign all around us, and within; Can never cloud Thy glorious reign.

Let sin no more our souls enthrall,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin:

O quickly come: for Thou alone
Canst make Thy scattered people one.

3 Come, quickly come, true Life of all,
For death is mighty all around;

On every home his shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found:

4 Come, quickly come, true Light of all;
For gloomy night broods o'er our way;
And weakly souls begin to fall

With weary watching for the day:
O quickly come: for round Thy throne
No eye is blind, no night is known.

Amen.

When I stand with Christ in glory, Look-ing o'er life's finished story:

Then, Lord, shall I ful - ly know—Not till then—how much I owe.

2 When I stand before the throne,
Dressed in beauty not my own;
When I see Thee as Thou art,
Love Thee with unsinning heart:
Then, Lord, shall I fully know—
Not till then — how much I owe.

3 When the praise of heaven I hear,
Loud as thunders to the ear,
Loud as many waters' noise,
Sweet as harp's melodious voice:
Then, Lord, shall I fully know—
Not till then — how much I owe. Amen.

2 When from the dust of death I rise

Jesus hath lived, hath died for me.

4 Thou God of power, Thou God of love,
Let the whole world Thy mercy prove;
Now let Thy word o'er all prevail;
Now take the spoils of death and hell.

3 Bold shall I stand in Thy great day,
For who ought to my charge shall lay?
Fully absolved through these I am,
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.

Kindle a flame of sa - cred love, In these cold hearts of ours!

2 Look, how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys!
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate,
Our love so faint, so cold to Thee,
And Thine to us so great?

3 In vain we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise:
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,

How well it seems to suit her still,
Old, and yet ever new.

 Alleluia! songs of triumph
 Well befit the ransomed train;
 We our songs must raise with sadness,

He can, with bread of heav - en, Thy fainting spir-it feed.

2 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the secret foe;
Far more are o'er thee watching
Than human eyes can know.
Trust only Christ, thy Captain,
Cease not to watch and pray;
Heed not the treach'rous voices,
That lure thy soul astray.

3 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the gathering night;
The Lord has been thy shelter,
The Lord will be thy light;
When morn His face revealeth,
Thy dangers all are past;
O pray that faith and virtue
May keep thee to the last. Amen.

1 Lead on, O King Eternal!
The day of march has come:
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home.
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

2 Lead on, O King Eternal!
Till Sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper
The sweet amen of Peace;

For not with swords loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy
The heavenly kingdom comes.

3 Lead on, O King Eternal!
We follow not with fears,
For gladness breaks like morning
Where e'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us—
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest—
Lead on, O God of might! Amen.

2 He comes with succor speedy
To those who suffer wrong:
To help the poor and needy,
And help the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light;
Whose souls condemned and dying, ||
Were precious in His sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love and joy, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth;
Before Him on the mountains,
Shall peace, the herald, go:
And righteousness in fountains, ||
From hill to valley flow.

4 Kings shall fall down before Him,
And gold and incense bring,
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing;
O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest,
From age to age more glorious, ||
All-blessing and all-blest.

5 For Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,—
A kingdom without end;
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand forever,— ||
That name to us is—Love! Amen.

LOWELL MASON

1 From Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand, Where Afric's sunny fountains Roll down their golden sand, — From many an ancient riv - er, From many a palmy plain, They call us to deliver Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile;
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone!

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high, —
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, oh, salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign. Amen.

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun Does his suc-ces-sive jour-neys run;

A - MEN.

His kingdom stretch from shore to shore, Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head:
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise,
With every morning sacrifice.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains:
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

3 People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

5 Let every creature rise and bring Peculiar honors to our King:
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud amen. Amen.

1 Kingdoms and thrones to God belong;
Crown Him, ye nations, in your song:
His wondrous name and power rehearse;
His honors shall enrich your verse.

He's your defence, your joy, your rest:
When terrors rise, and nations faint,
God is the strength of every saint. Amen.

1 Soon may the last glad song arise
Through all the millions of the skies—
That song of triumph which records
That all the earth is now the Lord's!

2 Let thrones and powers and kingdoms
Obedient, mighty God, to Thee! [bc
And, over land and stream and main,
Wave Thou the sceptre of Thy reign!

3 Oh, let that glorious anthem swell,
Let host to host the triumph tell,
That not one rebel heart remains,
But over all the Saviour reigns! Amen.

1 Chil-dren of the heavenly King, As ye jour - ney, sweet-ly sing;

Sing your Saviour's worthy praise, Glorious in His works and ways.

2 Ye are travelling home to God
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.

4 Fear not, brethren; joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest!
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared;
There your kingdom and reward.

Gladly leaving all below:

And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns Thy brow encircle,
And tears Thy face have marred.
O love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,

We open now the door;
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,

1 The King of glory standeth
Beside that heart of sin,
His mighty voice commandeth
The raging waves within;
The floods of deepest anguish
Roll backward at His will,
As o'er the storm ariseth
His mandate, "Peace, be still."

2 At times, with sudden glory,
He speaks, and all is done!
Without one stroke of battle
The victory is won:
While we with joy beholding,
Can scarce believe it true,
That e'en our kingly Jesus
Can form such hearts anew.

3 But sometimes in the stillness,
He gently draweth near,
And whispers words of welcome
Into the sinner's ear;
With anxious heart He waiteth
The answer of His cry,
That oft repeated question,
"O wherefore wilt thou die?"

4 O Christ, His love is mighty!
Long-suffering is His grace!
And glorious is the splendor
That beameth from His face!
Our hearts up-leap in gladness,
When we behold that love,
As we go singing onward
To dwell with Him above. Amen.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
 All fullness dwells in Him;
 He heals all my diseases,
 He doth my soul redeem:
 I lay my griefs on Jesus,
 My burdens and my cares;
 He from them all releases,
 He all my sorrow shares.

3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
 This weary soul of mine;
 His right hand me embraces,
 I on His breast recline:
 I love the name of Jesus,
 Immanuel, Christ, the Lord,
 Like fragrance on the breezes,
 His name abroad is poured.

 Meek, loving, lowly, mild;

2 Christian! dost thou feel them,
How they work within,
Striving, tempting, luring,
Goading into sin?
Christian! never tremble;
Never be downcast;
Gird thee for the battle,
Watch and pray and fast.

3 Christian! dost thou hear them,
How they speak thee fair?
"Always fast and vigil?
Always watch and prayer?"
Christian! answer boldly:
"While I breathe I pray!"
Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.

4 "Well I know thy trouble,
O my servant true;
Thou art very weary,
I was weary too;
But that toil shall make thee
Some day all Mine own,
And the end of sorrow
Shall be near My throne." Amen.

Hold thee in full survey;

1 Am I a soldier of the Cross,
A follower of the Lamb,
And shall I fear to own His cause,
Or blush to speak His name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be Thine. Amen.

1 How firm a foun-da-tion, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in His excellent word! What more can He say than to you He hath said, To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled, To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

2 "Fear not, I am with thee, oh, be not dismayed;
For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand."

3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be near thee thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress."

4 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace all sufficient shall be thy supply;
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine."

5 "E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove
My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And then, when gray hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne."

6 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,

While the nearer waters roll,

While the tempest still is high. Hide me, O my Saviour! hide, Till the storm of life is past; Safe in-to the haven guide; Oh, receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, ah, leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on Thee is stayed;
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in Thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

Just and holy is Thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,—
Grace to pardon all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity. Amen.

1 My God, my Father, while I stray Far from my home on life's rough way,

Oh, teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will be done."

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh;
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done!"

4 If but my fainting heart be blest
With Thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to Thee I leave the rest:
"Thy will be done!"

3 If Thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine;
I only yield Thee what was Thine:
"Thy will be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with Thine, and take away
Whate'er now makes it hard to say,
"Thy will be done!"

6 Then, when on earth I breathe no more,
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing upon a happier shore:
"Thy will be done!" Amen.

For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe: His craft and power are great,

And armed with cruel hate, On earth is not his e - qual.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,

Were not the right man on our side,

Christ Jesus, it is He;

From age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils

Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.

The prince of darkness grim,—
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure,—
One little word shall fell him!

4 That word above all earthly powers—
No thanks to them — abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through Him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,

2 Blest is that tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that solemn hour of eve,
When, on the wings of prayer up-borne,
The world I leave.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for
What peace of mind. [grief,

3 Then is my strength by Thee renewed;
Then are my sins by Thee forgiven;
Then dost Thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

6 Lord, till I reach that blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to Thee. Amen.

1 Prayer is the soul's sin-cere de - sire, Ut-tered or un - ex-pressed;

PRAYER AND ASPIRATION

The mo-tion of a hid - den fire That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry—"Behold, he prays!"

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try,
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air;
His watchword at the gates of death—
He enters heaven with prayer.

6 O Thou, by whom we come to God—
The Life, the Truth, the Way;
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
Lord! teach us how to pray. Amen.

1 Come to the morn-ing prayer, Come, let us kneel and pray;

Prayer is the Christian pilgrim's staff To walk with God all day.

2 At noon, beneath the Rock
Of Ages, rest and pray;
Sweet is that shadow from the heat
When smites the sun by day.

And finding there "the house of God,"
At "heaven's gate" close the day.

3 At eve, shut to the door,
Around its altar pray;

4 When midnight seals our eyes,
Let each in spirit say,
I sleep, but my heart waketh, Lord!
With Thee to watch and pray. Amen.

Then sink from good to ill;
Here we begin, there leave our strife,

Faithful and firm, and thus to gain

GREEK MELODY

1 { My Homeland, oh, my Home-land, The land of souls free-born! }
 { No gloom-y night is known there, But aye the fade-less morn; }

I'm sigh-ing for that coun - try, My heart is ach - ing here;

There's no pain in the Homeland To which I'm drawing near.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland,
 With angels bright and fair;
 No sinful thing or evil
 Can ever enter there;
 The music of the ransomed
 Is ringing in my ears,
 And when I think of Homeland
 My eyes are filled with tears.

3 My loved ones in the Homeland
 Are waiting me to come,
 Where neither death nor sorrow
 Invade their holy home:
 O dear, dear native country!
 O rest and peace above!
 Christ bring us to the Homeland
 Of His eternal love. Amen.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

4 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
These gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unbeclouded eyes.

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

5 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er— [flood
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold
Should fright us from the shore. Amen.

1 A-wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run:

Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice.

2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the Eternal King.

3 All praise to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refresh'd me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew,
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

6 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Eyes that the beam celestial view, Which evermore makes all things new.

2 New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove;
Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life and power and thought.

3 New mercies each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven;
New tho'ts of God, new hopes of heaven.

4 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

5 Old friends, old scenes will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see:
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

6 The trivial round, the common task:
Would furnish all we ought to ask:
Room to deny ourselves; a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

7 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray. Amen.

1 O Christ, with each returning morn
Thine image to our hearts be borne;
O may we ever clearly see
Our Saviour and our God in Thee.

2 O hallowed thus be every day;
Let meekness be our morning ray,
And faithful love our noon-day light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

3 May faith, deep-rooted in the soul,
Subdue our flesh, our minds control:
May guile depart, and discord cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

4 May He our actions deign to bless,
And loose the bands of wickedness;
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And guide us safely to the end. Amen.

2 To Thee, my God above,
I cry with glowing love,
May Jesus Christ be praised:

May Jesus Christ be praised.

4 When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised.
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

3 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

5 When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised.
The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,

Be this th' eternal song
Through all the ages on,

1 At e-ven ere the sun was set, The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay:

Oh, in what divers pains they met! Oh, with what joy they went away!

2 Once more 't is eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near:
What if Thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that Thou art here.

3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel:
For some are sick and some are sad,
And some have never loved Thee well,
And some have lost the love they had.

4 And some are pressed with worldly care:
And some are tried with sinful doubt:
And some such grievous passions tear,
That only Thou canst cast them out.

5 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in Thee;

6 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would love Thee best,
Are conscious most of wrong within.

7 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man,
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide.

8 Thy touch has still its ancient power;
No word from Thee can fruitless fall:
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in Thy mercy heal us all. Amen.

1 Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go; Thy word in- to our minds in - still;

And make our luke-warm hearts to glow With low-ly love and fervent will;

Through life's long day and death's dark night, O Gentle Jesus! be our Light.

2 The day is done, its hours have run;
And Thou hast taken count of all,
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
Through life's long day and death's
dark night,
O Gentle Jesus! be our Light.

4 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy
That only long to be like Thee.
Through life's long day and death's
dark night,
O Gentle Jesus! be our Light.

3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
Through life's long day and death's
dark night,
O Gentle Jesus! be our Light.

5 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful, unto Thee we call;
O let Thy mercy make us glad;
Thou art our Jesus, and our All.
Through life's long day and death's
dark night,
O Gentle Jesus! be our Light. Amen.

Continuation of the musical score for 'Hursley'. It features two staves. The second staff includes a vocal line with the instruction 'A - MEN.' above it. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes!

2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My weary eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast!

4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin,
Let him no more lie down in sin.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.

6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take;
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above. Amen.

All below is but a dream.

1 A few more years shall roll, A few more seasons come; And we shall be with those that rest Asleep within the tomb: Then, O my Lord, prepare My soul for that great day; Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood, And take my sins away.

2 A few more suns shall set
O'er these dark hills of time;
And we shall be where suns are not,
A far serener clime:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

4 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that bright day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore;
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

5 'Tis but a little while,
And He shall come again,
Who died that we might live, who lives
That we with Him may reign:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that glad day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away. Amen.

Time shall soon this earth remove; Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source:
So a soul, that's born of God,
Pants to view His glorious face,
Upward tends to His abode,
To rest in His embrace.

3 Fly me, riches, fly me, cares,
Whilst I that coast explore;
Flattering world, with all thy snares
Solicit me no more!
Pilgrims fix not here their home;
Strangers tarry but a night;
When the last dear morn is come,
They'll rise to joyful light.

4 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven. Amen.

FROM BEETHOVEN

1 Great God! we sing that mighty hand, By which supported still we stand:

The opening year Thy mercy shows; That mercy crowns it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still are we guarded by our God;
By His incessant bounty fed,
By His unerring counsel led.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be Thou our joy, and Thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own,
The future, all to us unknown,
We to Thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before Thy feet.

5 When death shall interrupt our songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues;
Our helper, God, in whom we trust,
In better worlds our souls shall boast.

475 Benedictus

W. CHARD

From St. Luke I.

Blessed be the Lord | God · of | Israel || for He hath visited | and · re | deemed ·
 His | people;
 And hath raised up a mighty sal | va · tion | for us || in the house | of · His | ser · vant | David ;
 As He spake by the mouth of His | ho · ly | Prophets || which have been | since ·
 the | world · be | gan ;
 That we should be saved | from · our | enemies || and from the | hand · of | all ·
 that | hate us .
 To perform the mercy promised to | our · fore | fathers || and to re | member · His |
 ho · ly | Covenant ;
 To perform the oath which he sware to our | fore · father | Abraham || that | He ·
 would | give · — | us ;
 That we being delivered out of the hand | of · our | enemies || might serve | Him ·
 with | out · — | fear ;
 In holiness and righteousness be | fore · — | Him || all the | days · — | of · our | life .
 And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet | of · the | Highest || for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to pre | pare · — | His · — | ways ;
 To give knowledge of salvation | unto · His | people || for the re | mis · sion | of ·
 their | sins ,
 Through the tender mercy | of · our | God || whereby the day-spring from on |
 high · hath | visit · ed | us ;
 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the | shadow · of | death || and to guide our feet | into · the | way · of | peace .
 Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to the | Ho · ly Ghost ;
 As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end

482 Cantate Domino

E. K. GLEZEN

From Psalm XCIII.

O sing unto the Lord a | new · — | song || for He hath | done · — | marvel · lous | things ;
 With His own right hand, and with His | ho · ly | arm || hath He | gotten · Him | self · the | victory.
 The Lord declared | His · sal | vation || His righteousness hath He openly shewed | in · the | sight · of the | heathen.
 He hath remembered His mercy and truth toward the | house · of | Israel || and all the ends of the world have seen the sal | va · tion | of · our | God.
 Shew yourselves joyful unto the Lord | all · ye | lands || sing re | joice · and | give · — | thanks.
 Praise the Lord up | on · the | harp || sing to the harp with a | psalm · of | thanks · — | giving.

483 Bonum Est Confiteri

J. JONES

From Psalm XCII.

It is a good thing to give thanks | unto · the | Lord || and to sing praises unto Thy Name | O · — | Most · — | Highest ;
 To tell of Thy loving kindness early | in · the | morning || and of Thy truth | in · the | night · — | season ;
 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and up | on · the | lute || upon a loud instru- ment | and · up | on · the | harp.
 For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad | through · Thy | works || and I will rejoice in giving praise for the oper | a · tions | of · Thy | hands.
 Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to · the | Ho · ly | Ghost :
 As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end · — | A · — | men.

484 Christ Our Passover

P. HAYES

From 1 Corinthians V, Romans VI, 1 Corinthians XV.

Christ our passover is sacri | ficed · for | us || therefore | let · us | keep · the | feast;
Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of | malice · and | wickedness || but with the unleavened bread of sin | cer · i | ty · and | truth.
Christ being raised from the dead | dieth · no | more || death hath no more do | min ·
ion | o · ver | Him.
For in that He died, He died unto | sin · — | once || but in that He liveth He |
liv · eth | un · to | God.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed | un · to | sin || but alive unto God through | Je · sus | Christ · our | Lord.
Christ is risen | from · the | dead || and become the first | fruits · of | them · that | slept.
For since by | man · came | death || by man came also the resur | rec · tion | of · the | dead.
For as in Adam | all · — | die || even so in Christ shall | all · be | made · a | live.
Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to · the | Ho · ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end · — |
A · — | men.

485 I am the Resurrection

W. FELTON

I am the resurrection and the life | saith · the | Lord || He that believeth in Me, though he were dead | yet · — | shall · he | live
And whosoever liveth and be | lieveth · in | Me || shall | nev · — | er · — | die ||
I know that my Re | deem · er | liveth || and that He shall stand at the latter day up | on · — | the · — | earth.
And though after my skin worms de | stroy · this | body || yet in my flesh | shall ·
I | see · — | God ||
Whom I shall see | for · my | self || and mine eyes shall behold | and · — | not · an other.
We brought nothing | into · this | world || and it is certain we can | car · ry | noth · ing | out ||
The Lord gave and the Lord hath | taken · a | way || blessed | be · the | name · of ·
the | Lord.
Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to · the | Ho · ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end · — |
| A · — | men.

486 Lord, let me know my end

W. CROFT

From Psalm XXXIX.

Lord, let me know my end, and the number | of · my | days || that I may be certified
 how | long · I | have · to | live.
 Behold, Thou hast made my days as it were a | span · — | long || and mine age is even as | nothing · in re | spect · of | Thee,
 And verily every man living is alto | geth · er | vanity || For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth him | self · — | in · — | vain;
 He heapeth | up · — | riches || and cannot tell | who · shall | gath · er | them.
 And now, Lord | what · is my | hope || truly my | hope · is | even · in | Thee.
 Deliver me from all | mine · of | fences || and make me not a re | buke · — | unto
 · the | foolish.
 When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth | fretting · a | garment || every man therefore | is · but | van · i | ty.
 Hear my prayer O Lord, and with Thine ears con | sider · my | calling || hold not
 Thy | peace · — | at · my | tears.
 For I am a | stranger · with | Thee || and a sojourner as | all · my | fa · thers | were.
 O spare me a little, that I may re | cover · my | strength || before I go hence | and
 · be | no · more | seen.
 Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to · the | Ho · ly | Ghost;
 As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end ·
 — | A · — | men.

487 Lord, Thou hast been our Dwelling Place E. K. GLEZEN

Small notes for organ.

From Psalm XC.

Lord Thou hast | been · our | dwelling place || in | all · — | gen · er | ations ||
 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the | earth · and the | world || even from everlasting to everlasting | Thou · — | art · — |
 God.
 Thou turnest | man · to de | struction || and sayest Re | turn · ye | children · of | men ||

ANCIENT AND SCRIPTURAL

For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday | when · it is | past || and as a | watch · — | in · the | night.
Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are | as · a | sleep || in the morning
they are like | grass · which | grow · eth | up ||
In the morning it flourisheth and | grow · eth | up || in the evening it is cut down | and · — | with · er | eth.
For we are consumed | by Thine | anger || and by Thy | wrath · — | are · we | troubled ||
Thou hast set our iniquities be | fore · — | Thee || our secret sins in the | light · —
| of · Thy | countenance.
For all our days are passed away | in · Thy | wrath || we spend our years as a | tale
— | that · is | told ||
The days of our years are threescore | years · and | ten || and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off | and · we | fly · a | way.
Who knoweth the power | of · Thine | anger || even according to Thy fear | so · —
| is · Thy | wrath ||
So teach us to | number · our | days || that we may apply our | hearts · — | un · to | wisdom.
Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to · the | Ho · ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end ·
— | A · — | men.

488 The Lord is my Shepherd

HART

Psalms XXIII.

The Lord | is · my | shepherd || I | shall · — | not · — | want
He maketh me to lie down in | green · — | pastures || He leadeth me be | side · the | still · — | waters.
He restoreth | my · — | soul || He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness | for ·
His | name's · — | sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will | fear · no | evil || for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy | staff · they | com · fort | me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence | of · mine | enemies || Thou anointest my head with oil my | cup · — | run · neth | over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days | of · my | life || and I will dwell in the | house · of the | Lord · for | ever.
Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to · the | Ho · ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev · er | shall be || world without | end · — |
A · — | men.

489 The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the | kingdom · of | heaven ||
 Blessed are they that mourn: for they | shall · — | be · — | comforted.
 Blessed are the meek: for they shall in | herit · the | earth ||
 Blessed are they who do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they | shall · —
 | be · — | filled.
 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall ob | tain · — | mercy ||

 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the | children · of | God;
 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs | is · the | kingdom · of | heaven. Amen.
